BOOKS AND AUTHORS—REVIEWS AND COMMENT

VIEWS AND REVIEWS OF CURRENT FICTION

A New Realist: Marion Hamilton Carter-Emerson Hough's Romance of the Lewis and Clark Expedition -Sir Gilbert Parker's Greater Canada.

sorts restricted. The Market Hamilton Carsorts restricted for the Market Scribber's Sons.

Occasionally, at intervals that are far too long, there rises from the unfar too long, the uniform the unfar too long, the uniform the un netty, superficial, a realist of them, the presser was the first of them, the book "Sister Carrie," remains sterpiece, never surpassed by over equalled. Stephen Whitedore Dreiser was the first of them. matticism. And now we have, from an merican weman, a study of Far Westmelican stud House with the Green Shutters" held day toward the saccharinities

This is not the first time that the of the life of the pioneer West of hardship, monotony and grinding abor, but "Souls Resurgent" does not erely depict and expose the rough ration of the interaction of char-

Cyrus Townsend Brady

The More Excellent Way

A story of modern society and the divorce question, the scenes in New York, Sorrento, Bermuda, and Reno. The really serious purpose and telling lessons of the book are for the moment forgotten in the swift succession of its dramatic developments.

All Booksellers G. P. Putnam's Sons London

Important War Book

BEBNARD SHAW.

| transformation she sees where she her-

far too look.

distinguished and undistinguishable own inflexible standards, unsoftened by mass of current American fiction, experience, and her mother's tolerant knowledge of local ways and conditions, table, pretty, superficial, a realist of knowledge of local ways and conditions,

"Prodestined" was another first ment are traced and developed in incihas abandoned the hard path for has worked out her psychological anal-shadler, easier avenues of ro-paper. But cocasionally her heroine democracy proclaiming men free and equal and laying it down that there is but one class for all: the ideal remains perpetually outside, challenging, and the common herd challenging, and the common herd has nothing to meet it with but the claim of brute "rights" that would drag everything to its ow: dead level of mediocrity. To scorn superiority and yet himself remain scorn-exempt for his own short-comings is the proletarian's "ideal" of society and his panacea for its existent ills from which he thinks himself "suffering." Acknowledge his "right" to be taken everywhere on his own terms and the Golden Age is here!

girl accepts the responsibilities and the author's picturesque crafts upon her, appalled by their in the heauty, her dress, her how to make his characters one with meight. Her beauty, her dress, her manners, her fastidiousness, all that sets her apart from the primitiveness of the ranch life, is admired, yet resented; her insistence upon her right to privacy, even from her mother and sister, most of all. Her mere presence at the table, where family and hands all take their meals together, produces constraint. Through a long winter, interpressibly monotonous and depressing, she becomes increasingly continued of her failure, and then she discovers that she is winning, slowly, pradually; that admiration has won the day over resentment, that the superior standards of manners, of point of view, of honor which are hers are making of honor which are hers are making the healt and the country of the habitants has been carried along.

Miss Theodosia's Heartstrings

ANNIE HAMILTON DONNELL

Author of "Rebecca Mary," etc.

Miss Theodosia Baxter wandered up and down the world for three years in search of something to interest her, only to come home and find it on the upper step of her own front porch. Here is a book that no one who loves children can resist.

Illustrated by William Von Dresser $1.00 net.

LITTLE, BROWN & COMPANY Publishers

CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY. "Olga Bardell": The Century Co. "The More Excellent Way": Putnam.

one of the best Sir Gilbert has written and there is Barney the errand boy!

protect like the reconstitution of the compensations of particular services and fame.

THE WORD FOR SALE, the vicinity are all the compensations of particular services and fame.

THE WORD FOR SALE, the vicinity are all the compensations of particular services and the particular ser

E. P. DUTTON & CO.

Make Your Living-Room Your University

EVERYMAN'S LIBRARY

There are 734 Volumes Now Ready

All of Educational Value

CHOOSE FOR YOURSELF

Cloth, 40c net; Leather, 80c net. (Postage Extra.) Any Bookstore.

Books that you will always value.

Books that your children should know.

Books that are essential to being an all-round well-read man.

Books noted everywhere for being the best modern editions, clear convenient size and attractive binding.

SARAH MACNAUGHTAN

chargement Kalljard sebool.

The Marc Execution Name and the life of the two, leaves and the proposed with a wellthe search proposed with the second proposed of the second proposed where his hard hash even as the continent to the Great Northwest, where his hero has his vision of the future, and the power to set about its realization in the face of opposition of treachery and the rough, among a builder, by the first of the future, and the power to set about its realization in the face of opposition of treachery and the rough, among a builder, by the first of the first of only.

And moth-like death in the owl.

Beauty was here, on this beetle-droning downland:
The thought of a Caesar in the purple came

The thought of a Caesar in the purple of uttering and seeking to resolve such of presenting through the persons of her her own philosophy of life, of uttering and seeking to resolve such religious doubts as come to all thinking people, of trying to understand the mystery of pain, to reconcile unmerited suffering in men and animals with the same as a thought on the frontier of the mind.

In the camp of the wild upon the march of madness.

The bright-eyed Queen of the blind.

Now where Beauty was are the windwithered gorses

Moaning like old men in the hill-wind's blast.

The flying sky is dark with running horses

And the night is full of the past.

— From October "Yale Review."

of presenting through the persons of her fiction her own philosophy of life, of uttering and seeking to resolve such religious doubts as come to all thinking people, of trying to understand the mystery of pain, to reconcile unmerited suffering in men and animals with the suffering in men and animals with the book anonymously because she had opened her secret heart in it and could opened her se

681 Fifth Avenue, New York

There is a note of weariness in these unpublished pages at times, for the world's burden was heavy upon her, and she was ill and in need of rest; but her indomitable courage and humor flash out at intervals.

There is no need to attempt any more

Mildred Aldrich, the author of the successful "A Hilltop on the Marne," has written a second volume of her experiences of the war, "Told in a French Garden, August, 1914," which Small, Maynard & Co., of Boston, announce for early issue they care to refresh their memories of do so in a new edition of the brought out by Dodd, Mead & Co.

A Western tale by a Western writer. It is as rugged as the "Sierras," where the scenes are laid. What the critics say:

MARKWELL PUBLISHING COMPANY, 145 West 45th St., NEW YORK

Out today-A Novel for old and young

GEORGINA RAINBOWS

By ANNIE FELLOWS JOHNSTON Author of "The Little Colonel"

Here is a story brimming with love, laughter and happy tears. Taking you to old Provincetown with its quaint neighbors, and narrow streets swept by the breath of the sea. You'll like Georgina.

She'll "put a rainbone round all your troubles." Take her home with you today, All booksellers, $1.25 Net.

BRITTON PUBLISHING CO. :: New York

THE CHEVALIER DE BOUFFLERS A Romance of the French Revolution

By NESTA H. WEBSTER, Author of "Sheep Track."

From a full-page review by Earl Cromer in The London Spectator:
"Miss Webster has made the loves of the Chevaller de Boufflers and Mme. de Sabran a peg on which to hang a vivid and highly interesting account of one of the most pathetic episodes recorded in history. She relates how the Joyous, artificial French society of the eighteenth century, like that of ancient Rome, was laughing when it died.

"The male readers of Miss Webster's attractive volume will in all probability fall posthumously in love with her heroine before they set it down and those of her own sex will assuredly admit that she has gained well-deserved laurels in a special field of literature in which women excel." Price 84,00 net (Postage Extra). All Bookstores

681 Fifth Avenue, New York

"The Life and Letters of Theodore Watts-Dunton," by Thomas Hake and Arthur Compton Rickett, is among the October announcements of G. P. Putnam's Sons.

In a French Garden.

Mildred Aldrich, the author of the anneassful "A Hillton on the Marne." literary quality. The period of bac translations of the Russian masters often at second hand, is happily past. The hasty translations of their successors, now being thrown upon the market, often leave much to be desired.

Affred A. Knopf announces for the fall "Pointed Roofs," by Dorothy Richardson, the first of three novels devoted to the progress of an English tigirl through the most interesting period of her life. The book will have an introduction by J. D. Beresford, the author of the "Jacob Stahi" trilogy.

"Mark Rutherford."

Older novel readers will remember with pleasure, the moment it is recalled to their minds, the once deservedly popular "Autobiography and Deliverance of Mark Rutherford." If they care to refresh their memories of his trials and tribulation.

rvedly popular "Autobiography and eliverance of Mark Rutherford." If ey care to refresh their memories of strials and tribulations, they may so in a new edition of the book ought out by Dodd, Mead & Co.

so in a new edition of the book ought out by Dodd, Mead & Co. Books of the Week.

Little, Brown & Co. publish to-day "Miss Theodosia's Heartstrings," by Annie Hamilton Donnell; "Clover and Blue Grass," by Eliza Calvert Hall; "The Heritage of the Sioux," by B. M. Bower; "The Worn Doorstep," by Margaret Sherwood; Dr. Charles A. Eastman's autobiographical volume "From the Deep Woods to Civilization"; Margaret Fuller's biographical "A New England Childhood" (Edmund Clarence Stedman); Harriet Prescott Spofford's

New Publications 22d Send for complete descriptive list of Fall Publications

The Backwash of the War

Ellen N. La Motte

Author of "The Tuberculosis Nurse," 12°, 81,00. This is war of today, -not magnificent and glorious, but naked, loathsome, as seen in an evacua-tion hospital a few miles behind the French lines. These sketches are all faithfully true, first-hand reports from the front, written in by an hysterical assistant but by a trained scientist of world-wide reputation.

1000 Shorter Ways Around the House Mae Savell Croy

12°. 335 pages. $1.00. A handbook of the home-its building, its furnishing, and its management. A vast number of hints to the housekeeper, practical and valuable, covering everything from garret to cellar. All Booksellers-All Prices Not

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS New York

A Little House

in War Time

By AGNES and EGERTON CASTLE.
The life of an average English family during the first year of the war.
How they hoped and feared and were made to find the unbearable, bearable.

A Woman's Diary

of the War

y S. MacNAUGHTAN. Net, $1.00 A book with a purely literary quality that few books on the war possess. Written by one of the Red Cross Staff with the simplicity of absolute skill, and with a beauty that makes your

A French Woman's Notes on the War

CLARE DE PRATZ. Net. $1.50 an invaluable witness to the antitude of the French people during the day of the mobilization. You will like Madennoisele de Pratz for her burning French heart and her logical English.

Content With Flies By MARY and JANE FINDLATER

One problem of the war is whether it is possible for cultured ladies to live their lives in a cottage "doing for themselves" without servants. The authors tried this for themselves in a corner of Scotland last summer, and tell the results of the experiment.

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Ave., N.Y.

THOMS & ERON. INC.

International International se or Government With an introduction

s the most important con-the subject so far pub-RENTANO'S Are, and 27th St., New York

snow-capped Switzerland.

Saturated with humor and lighted with brilliant satire.

Recommended by the publishers with the utmost

Price $1.35 net

Published by

THE CENTURY

confidence.